   2:30 p.m. Sunday at the church
   (if this changes we will call in transit)

Theme:

Life is busy. Life is hectic. We learn to live lives so full of appointments and commitments that we can barely keep everything straight. Beyond our schedules, our minds are burdened by friend lists, tryouts, tests and tweets that its no wonder we can get so stressed sometimes. What would life look like if we learned to... reconnect

...stop.

...listen.

...hear from God.

...weigh our choices in light of our beliefs.

Connection takes intention. We don't connect deeply with people without effort, so why would we think connecting to God is any different. We need to intentionally disconnect to reconnect.
