Thanksgiving Offering

How would you feel if our city allowed a developer to come on to our property, bulldoze our buildings, rebuild new offices and homes, and get all the money? That is what happened to the Africa Inland Church Huruma. Corrupt? Certainly. Unjust? Definitely. But that is what happened. Pastor Stanlas Ndambuki started the church in one of the worst slums in Nairobi in 2000. Slowly he built the people, the real church. But they were also able to build a church building. Dr. George Renner preached there many times. Pastor Steve preached there. And the church grew, and the building was packed. That is, until it was destroyed.

This year our Thanksgiving Offering is going to go to the AIC Huruma church as they look for a new location to begin again. You can designate on your offering envelope “Thanksgiving” or go to the website and give through our online, secure giving link, under “Thanksgiving 2018”. Thanks for helping build a new church to help build the church people!

CLASS 401 – Sunday, December 9, 2018

Class 401: How to Share Your Faith

Do you break out in a cold sweat when you think about talking to another person about Jesus? Do you get tongue-tied when you actually get to talk about Jesus? You’re not alone. While most Christians would love to see people come to faith in Christ, often we struggle with knowing what to say when it comes to sharing our faith. Class

401 will help. Class 401 is a 2-hour class that will help you develop the know-how and the confidence to be able to talk to others about Jesus.

To sign-up, email PastorSteve@TrinityNH.org or watch for the insert in next week’s bulletin. The class will be December 9th, from 12:00 – 2:30 pm, lunch included. Childcare available for up through 5th grade.

Our greatest need is jelly/jam to go with the peanut butter we will have available for our families. We will also take any nonperishable items you care to donate. Items can be placed in the designated baskets under the coat rack in the lobby.

Buy a Bag, Feed a Family - December 2nd

Global Bag Ladies is a project started by Linda Renner as part of her ministry in Nairobi, Kenya. Linda has worked with the African women of NEGST and the surrounding communities, designing and making cloth bags. Linda gets them to the US and sells them, returning the profits to the women in Kenya. This provides the women with money to buy food, pay for housing, and cover some school fees. Please consider supporting the women in Kenya by purchasing a bag at the table in the lobby On December 2nd. Christmas is coming you know, and these make great gifts!

Pastoral Search Team Update

- Completed Interview Training with Del Gilbert on November 17th
- Meeting with Mission Northeast Director David Forsythe on Tuesday November 27th
- Beginning the process of posting to a number of seminary job boards
- Accepting WRITTEN recommendations for our next pastor sent to: tbcpastoralsearchteam@gmail.com
- Full consideration of a candidate will be dependent upon submitting resume

IMPORTANT CAUTION: Please be very careful with open conversations about potential candidates, especially if the candidate is unaware of our interest in him. Livelihoods may be at stake. Rumors and gossip can quickly make their way back to a congregation who might be shocked to hear another church is considering their pastor for a position. If you have any questions or concerns, please speak with a member of the Pastoral Search Committee.

Message: Pastor Steve Murray

Series: Prayers of the Old Testament

Welcome to Trinity

What do you do when you are in a hopeless situation? You pray for a miracle. Does God still perform miracles today? If so, how can you pray for one? In the message today, we’ll find out answers to both.

If this is your first time here, I want to welcome you and encourage you to join with us as we gather to honor God and seek to learn from the Bible. Pastor Steve will be in the Welcome Center area of the main lobby after the service and would love to meet you if you are a guest. Please drop by to say hi. If you would like to speak to someone about your relationship with Christ or wish to have someone pray for you for a need or request, it would be our privilege to pray with you. Members of our Elders and Women’s Care Team will be at the front of the church to join you in prayer. Pastor Steve
