Children are one of Trinity’s core values. Kids are important to us, and we want to keep building a fruitful and fun ministry for them. We are looking for a person who has a similar vision for their spiritual development and overseeing the children’s ministry. If you are interested in checking it out, you can get a job description and an employment application from our website at www.Trinitynh.org/cmdapplication. If you know of someone outside the church who might be interested, please let them know. This is a paid position, 20-25 hours a week. If you have questions, please contact Pastor Steve, Pastorsteve@Trinitynh.org.

Message: Pastor Steve Murray

Series: 1 Peter: Godly Living in an Ungodly Society

Welcome to Trinity

Christians will stick out in society when we live godly lives. And that is true when it comes to Christian marriages. What makes Christian marriages different? We'll find out as we hear what the Bible says through Peter's timely and relevant letter to Christians in the first century.

If this is your first time here, I want to welcome you and encourage you to join with us as we gather to honor God and seek to learn from the Bible. Pastor Steve will be in the Welcome Center area of the main lobby after the service and would love to meet you if you are a guest. Please drop by to say hi. If you would like to speak to someone about your relationship with Christ or wish to have someone pray for you for a need or request, it would be our privilege to pray with you. Members of our Elders and Women's Care Team will be at the front of the church to join you in prayer.
