3/10/2019

PRAY for our missionary translators, Steve and Debbie M., who are preparing with the Migabac people in Papua New Guinea, for the July dedication of their newly completed New Testament. Pray for planning details and for safe shipping and transport of the Bibles from printing to the PNG village.

PRAY for Kyle K., that he would find meaningful work, where he can use his gifts, bring God glory and help others--without sacrificing the care and feeding of his family. Please pray that God would grant him wisdom and courage to spend his time/resources in the most fruitful way.

PRAY for a healing for Bill H. as he continues to recover from a cut on his forehead and a black eye caused by a fall.

PRAY for Jeff M. and his family as he has been diagnosed with myelodysplastic syndrome (a type of bone marrow cancer). Please pray that a donor match will be found for a stem cell transplant and also pray for wisdom for the right timing for the procedure.

Summer 2019 VBS Update

This summer (July 15-19 in the morning), VBS is coming back to Trinity! It will be a fun, sports-themed week, with plenty of activities and Bible stories. There may even be a water balloon fight! It will be open to all kids, who are entering Kindergarten – 5th grade in the fall. However, in order to pull this off, we are going to need a lot of help. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Jonathan McKay at mckay.jmm@gmail.com. We look forward to seeing God work through this wonderful opportunity!

Children's Ministry Director Position Open

Children are one of Trinity's core values. Kids are important to us, and we want to keep building a fruitful and fun ministry for them. We are looking for a person who has a similar vision for their spiritual development and overseeing the children's ministry. If you are interested in checking it out, you can get a job description and an employment application from our website at www.Trinitynh.org/cmdapplication. If you know of someone outside the church who might be interested, please let them know. This is a paid position, 20-25 hours a week. If you have questions, please contact Pastor Steve, Pastorsteve@Trinitynh.org.

We are also looking for people who would like to oversee a part of the children's ministry but not the whole ministry. They would work under the CMD. We are looking for coordinators for Sunday School and Children's Church. These positions are not paid. If you are interested in them, please contact Pastor Steve for a job description.

Pastoral Search Team Update

Welcome to March! Here is a summary of where we stand to date:

- We've received roughly 40 resumes so far
- More are still coming in
- We've begun to interview candidates

We could use prayer in the following areas:

- Discernment--as we continue to seek His next pastor for Trinity
- Stamina--as time demands increase for the team
- Health--that winter illnesses and other wellness concerns would be held at bay

Thank you for your continued prayer and encouragement. We are grateful!
In Him, Kyle Keldsen for the team

Message: Pastor Steve Murray

Series: 1 Peter: Godly Living in an Ungodly Society

Welcome to Trinity

When you know there are going to be some major changes coming in the near future, how does that relate to your present attitude and performance? Peter applies that to us who are Christians. With Jesus coming back, how should that affect our walk with God in the world around us? That's what we will be talking about in our sermon today.

If this is your first time here, I want to welcome you and encourage you to join with us as we gather to honor God and seek to learn from the Bible. Pastor Steve will be in the Welcome Center area of the main lobby after the service and would love to meet you if you are a guest. Please drop by to say hi. If you would like to speak to someone about your relationship with Christ or wish to have someone pray for you for a need or request, it would be our privilege to pray with you. Members of our Elders and Women's Care Team will be at the front of the church to join you in prayer. Pastor Steve
